

GPS Orienteering

The GPS Orienteering activity requires both a computer suite or room with computers in addition to access to the outside area of the premises.

Each computer needs to be able to access the internet and ideally we need one web enabled computer linked to a projector.

Each team needs its own computer plus the one connected to a projector.

Electricity required

We need access to a standard 13amp double socket to charge the GPS Trackers and mobile phones.